Spring 2025

Organization	Offense	Action
Beta Sigma Chapter: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.	A complaint alleging harassment filed with the South Atlantic Regional Office and the Office of Student Life & Leadership.	The investigation conducted by the Office of Student Life & Leadership concluded that the allegations of hazing could not be substantiated. However, there is evidence that confidential information involving the membership process was discussed with third parties. The chapter was reinstated as an active student organization, however placed on a probationary status and the local graduate chapter will continue to oversee and administer the chapter activities until further notice. The activities include membership intake and chapter meetings.
Beta Sigma Chapter: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.	A student accused the chapter of committing an act of hazing discrimination during the application process.	The investigation conducted by the University's Equal Opportunity Investigator concluded that the allegations of hazing and discrimination were unfounded. Thus, the chapter was reinstated as an active student organization.
Alpha Xi Chapter: Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.	A hazing incident was reported to the university by the organization.	The investigation conducted by the University's Equal Opportunity Investigator concluded that there was a finding of hazing by one member of the chapter, who was disciplined according to the Student Handbook by the Office of Judicial Affairs. The chapter was reinstated as an active student organization; however, the local graduate chapter will continue to oversee and administer the chapter activities until further notice.

Alpha Lambda Chapter: Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.	A speculation of hazing was reported to the Vice President for Student Affairs by a university administrator.	Interviews conducted by the University's General Counsel and Vice President for Student Affairs concluded that the speculation was unsubstantiated.
